What is Gamily?

Gamily is the dating app for queer gamers. We are the place where people put their dorky interests at the forefront, whether that is Dungeons and Dragons, Competitive Multiplayer Online Battle Arenas, or six hour heavyweight European boardgames. We believe that lasting connection comes from shared passions, and that nothing is more attractive than being your authentic self.

Who are we?

We are a team of three. Gabe dreamed up Gamily and designed it from scratch. Kevin took that dream and turned it into ones and zeros and little boxes that light up on screen. Will helps us point the pixels in the right direction.

What are our values?

In the age of AI slop, we believe in authenticity. In the age of mega corporations profiting off of addiction, we believe in intention. We're interested in the human behind the controller. The person inside the cosplay. We value safety, inclusivity, and privacy. We consider ourselves a small business, not a start-up.

Notable Features

Safety & Privacy

🛡️ Face pictures and photo verification required. No scammers or catfishers welcome. We don't retain any biometric information.

🛡️ Photo and chat moderation. No unwanted 🍌 pics or harassing messages (and we err on the side of caution)

🛡️ Easy reporting and blocking, and a three-strikes you're out policy.

🛡️ We don't track our users or sell / share their data to anyone. We make money by charging a reasonable fee that will cover our costs.

Discovery & Connection

🎮 Show off what you're currently playing from our library of over 300k video game titles and over 150k board game titles, powered by IGDB and BoardGameGeek

🛡️ Robust filtering allows you to find people who love the same games as you. Narrow it down by game, system, location, age, and more.

🎮 Connect your Twitch account and show off your streams right in your profile. You can also watch others' streams without ever leaving the app.

Inclusivity

🛡️ Expansive gender options. Cis gendered people are not centered above other gender identities.

🛡️ Unique "many to many" matching - select multiple gender identities for yourself and your matches. You'll only see and be seen by those you're interested in.

🛡️ We don't presume to know what works best for a community. Submit and vote on features within the app. Feedback goes directly to the founders.
